

Please allow satellite radio to offer traffic and weather reports for local markets.

I purchased XM because local radio stinks! The local stations play the same mix of pop music or talk radio. The choices are too limited. Satellite offers a nice variety. If I choose to hear my information by this means, I should be able to hear local information too.